NOTABLE EVENTS

During the month of February, there were three malicious destruction of property complaints filed. The incidents do not appear to be related. The first was a juvenile related issue where the adopted son of the owner damaged a home in the Township. The next incident was damage done to a vehicle left at the park and ride. The last report of destroyed property was medications being flushed down a toilet as a result of a disagreement.

On February 6th, a break-in was reported in the 23000 block of Gates Road. The victim reported a home being entered and items were taken. The victim did identify a suspect, however, only wanted a report on file.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael J. Williams
Sheriff
