NOTABLE EVENTS

On December 4th, a larceny was reported. It occurred in the 2300 block of West Tamarack Road. The homeowner stated that within the prior ten days, someone stole her ten feet tall skeleton lawn decoration. The homeowner was not home during the theft. There are no suspects currently.

On December 16th, an attempted fraud was investigated at a business in the 19000 block of West Edgar Road. There have been similar frauds attempted and committed throughout the region nationally. Subjects were entering convenience stores to purchase hundreds of dollars' worth of scratch off lottery tickets using stolen credit card information. The investigations are ongoing.

Respectfully submitted,
