HIGHLIGHTS

On January 17 while on patrol, the deputy spotted a vehicle travelling nearing Maple Hill and Tamarack Roads. The deputy noted the license plate light was out and in running the registration, it was learned the registration plate was expired. The deputy noted further the vehicle was being operated at a slower than normal speed. The vehicle was stopped and when the driver was contacted, a strong odor of alcohol was smelled. The driver, a 35-year-old Newaygo man, was arrested after failing the sobriety examinations. The deputy learned the driver also had a revoked driving status.

On January 23rd, a larceny was reported in the 22000 block of West Howard City Road. The location is a business and firewood and chainsaws were indicated as stolen. The business owner suspected an employee and published a reward for the stolen items. The owner's suspicions were quickly confirmed. The report has been sent to the prosecutor's office asking for criminal charges against a 37-year-old from Howard City.

Respectfully submitted,
